The Mormon leaders have discovered and published the singular fact that they have among them a prophetic account, written thirty-three years ago, of the great war between the north and south. The whole world has been mistaken as to the cause of the war, and the combined wisdom of the whole world would never kave guessed it. It was for the persecution of the disciples of Joseph Smith, years gone by, that these vials of wrath were poured out upon this blind and perverse nation. A portion of the prophecy, as given by a leading Mormon journal, reads as follows, concerning their appeal to the president to obtain redress for them after their persecution:

"The Lord, in the reveiation referred to, declared that would be the result if [WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.] cided that foreign insurance companies cannot combine and do business in Mis-FROM WASHINGTON.
